Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use,
set apart as holy, useful to the Master,
ready for every good work.

Announcements

If you have interest in helping with a Thanksgiving choir, practice will begin in the sewing room on the west wing immediately following the service. Anyone is welcome.

Please have all clothing donations for the homeless in Baltimore in the church library by this Saturday, October 31.

Saturday the time will fall back and Daylight Savings Time ends.

Next Sunday, is International Day of Prayer for persecuted Christians. Join the prayer group meeting at 9:30 next Sunday in the conference room to begin a month of prayer for Christian brothers and sisters in Iran and other hostile, restricted nation around the world.

Thanksgiving Testimonies: Each Sunday during November leading up to Thanksgiving we are planning to have a member of the congregation share a testimony they have prepared to express their gratitude to God and how they have seen His faithfulness and goodness in their lives. Next Sunday Jack Anderson will be starting us off. We are also encouraging others to join in during the congregational sharing time as we would like the whole month to be devoted to expressing our thanks to the Lord.

Elder Selection Forms are due next Sunday. There are forms on the bulletin table outside the church office.

Sunday, November 22, Will, Wes, and Joey Powell will be with us to share about their experiences on the mission field during the Sunday school hour.

Save the Date: The community Thanksgiving service will be held on November 22, 3:00 PM, at Mount Zion Baptist Church on Ridge Road in Powhatan. Please join with believers from other area churches for that time of worship together if you can.
